KINGDOM VOLLEYBALL ACADEMY

ACADEMY DIRECTOR:

Sarah Chaney, a 2011 graduate of Madison High School, has played year round volleyball since she was in 4th grade. Along with playing club volleyball her whole life, Sarah was also a 4-time letter winner on Madison's Varsity Volleyball team. She was a 3-time SWBL League Player of the Year, 4-time 1st Team All-League and 3-time 1st Team All-District. After high school, Sarah committed to play Division 1 collegiate volleyball at Miami University on a full ride scholarship. Her volleyball career ended in 2014 when she made the All-MAC tournament team her senior year.

Nick Umbdenstock, has been coaching for 5 years including all levels of play from middle school to college. I have been playing volleyball for 10 years. Most recently I finished up my bachelors degree in coaching at Miami University as well as an internship with their women's volleyball program. I was the head coach for Borderline volleyball's 16 American team. In the fall I will be starting an assistant position at Cincinnati state with their women's volleyball team.

Sarah, along with her assistant, look forward to serving as the Volleyball Directors at The Kingdom Sports Center this Summer.
